

SPONSORED in part by Neuroscience Associates

Nu Rho Psi Chapter Activity Grants support chapter activities promoting public awareness of the brain and/or service to the community. Chapters are encouraged to organize activities around a common theme Glial Cells and Their Role in to Health and Disease

Award Information

No more than four Nu Rho Psi Chapter Activity Grants will be awarded during the current cycle. Requested funds cannot exceed $300 and must be used for direct costs of chapter activities. Funded activities will be featured on the Nu Rho Psi web site and disseminated to the neuroscience community.

Eligibility

The applicant must be a member of a recognized Nu Rho Psi chapter and must be submitting an application on behalf of the chapter. The applicant must provide a brief letter of support from the chapter faculty advisor. The applicant must agree to submit a Project Summary upon completion of the project.

Selection Criteria

The Nu Rho Psi Awards Committee will evaluate applications through a competitive process. Applications will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

- Perceived effectiveness of the proposed activities in promoting public awareness of the brain and/or service to the community
- Extent to which proposed activities are organized around the common theme.

Instructions

1. Please send all application materials - including the cover page and all items below - as a single PDF document to Shubhik DebBurman at debburma@mx.lakeforest.edu by 1 October 2018 in order to be considered for the Academic Year 2018-19 cycle.
2. Provide a 250-500-word description of the proposed activities. The description should comment on how the proposed activities will help to meet stated objectives of Nu Rho Psi: (1) to increase public awareness of the brain and/or (2) to provide service to the community. Theme-related activity is encouraged, and the description should clearly state how the proposed activities relate to the 2018-19 common theme (Theme TBA), if relevant.
3. Provide a brief statement of support from the chapter advisor. The chapter advisor should comment on the availability of other funds (if any) and must agree to administer funds on behalf of the chapter.
