Chapter of Nu Rho Psi

ARTICLE I --NAME

The name of this organization shall be the _____ (Note: leave this section blank as the National Council will provide the appropriate Greek letter designation)
Chapter of Nu Rho Psi, a local unit of Nu Rho Psi, the National Honor Society in Neuroscience, hereinafter referred to as the Chapter and the National Society.

ARTICLE II--PURPOSE

The purpose of Nu Rho Psi shall be to: (1) encourage professional interest and excellence in scholarship, particularly in neuroscience; (2) award recognition to students who have achieved such excellence in scholarship; (3) advance the discipline of neuroscience; (4) encourage intellectual and social interaction between students, faculty, and professionals in neuroscience and related fields; (5) promote career development in neuroscience and related fields; (6) increase public awareness of neuroscience and its benefits for the individual and society; and (7) encourage service to the community.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility

Membership is open to students and faculty of _____ [name of institution(s)] who have demonstrated superior academic achievement in general scholarship and neuroscience and who possess high standards of personal behavior.

A. Regular Student members shall be students enrolled in undergraduate or graduate programs at the time of induction.

1. Qualifications for Undergraduate Student Members

[Listed below are the minimum standards for an undergraduate student to be inducted into Nu Rho Psi. Your chapter may revise these to set higher—but not lower—requirements. Your chapter may also add additional requirements (e.g. a service component).]

Academic Standing

To be eligible for membership, students must meet the following academic criteria:

2. Qualifications for Graduate Student Members

[Listed below are the minimum standards for an undergraduate student to be inducted into Nu Rho Psi. Your chapter may revise these to set higher—but not lower—requirements.]

Your chapter may also add additional requirements (e.g. a service component). If your institution does not have graduate programs in neuroscience you should delete this section.]

Academic Standing

To be eligible for membership, students must meet the following academic criteria:

- Declared Program: Candidates must be registered in a graduate-level program with a neuroscience emphasis. Students must have officially declared a major, minor, or concentration/certificate in Neuroscience.
- GPA
 - Cumulative GPA: Minimum overall GPA of 3.5 in all graduate courses.
 - Neuroscience GPA: Minimum GPA of 3.5 in neuroscience-related graduate coursework.

1. ~~Undergraduate students shall have completed at least 3 semesters (or 5 quarters) of the college curriculum and be registered for major or minor standing in neuroscience or in a program that has a neuroscience emphasis, have completed at least nine semester hours (or equivalent) in courses in neuroscience[†] with one of these courses being specific to neuroscience (such as Behavioral Neuroscience, Introduction to Neuroscience), have a minimum grade point average of 3.02 on a 4.0 scale, and have a minimum grade point average of 3.25 in neuroscience courses. GPA shall be based on a student's academic record at _____ (name of college or university), but transfer students with a distinguished record from another institution may petition the chapter for consideration of this information.~~

2. ~~Graduate students (M.A. or Ph.D.) shall be registered for major or minor standing in neuroscience or a program that has a neuroscience emphasis, have completed at least nine semester hours (or equivalent) in courses in neuroscience, and have a minimum grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale in all graduate courses and a minimum grade point average of 3.5 in neuroscience courses.~~

B. Provisional undergraduate student members shall be enrolled in undergraduate or graduate programs at the time of induction. Undergraduate students may apply for provisional membership if they are pursuing a degree in neuroscience, or a closely related discipline, but have not yet attained the requisite credit hours and/or number of courses required for election as a regular student member. To be eligible to apply for provisional membership, a student shall have completed at least one semester, or two quarters, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.050 on a 4.00 point scale, and have completed at least one neuroscience-related course (e.g. Introductory Neuroscience or Neuroscience Seminar). Upon attaining regular member requirements, the student shall submit an application for [†]Neuroscience courses are those that are required contribute to for the major or minor or concentration in neuroscience (or related discipline) at the home institution. Based on their course content, Neuroscience courses are considered relevant to the study of the nervous system and/or have significant neuroscience content. ~~At least one qualifying course must be specific to neuroscience. If a Neuroscience major, minor or equivalent program is not available, the courses included in the approved "Application to shelter a chapter of Nu Rho Psi" shall be used to determine if a candidate meets the minimum course requirements.~~

- C. Charter members and applicants who meet eligibility criteria of a chapter are elected by the Nu Rho Psi National Council at the time of application approval

Section 3. Induction of New Members

- A. Induction of new members shall take place at least once each year, either at a regular meeting of the Chapter or a Chapter banquet.
- B. Prior to induction, each prospective member shall pay an induction fee as determined by the National Society, which shall entitle the inductee to life membership without payment of further dues or assessments to the National Society. Annual dues may be collected by local Chapters (see Article IX).
- C. Inductees shall pay chapter dues as established by the Chapter.

Section 4. Active and Inactive Status

- A. A student member shall be considered to be active in Nu Rho Psi if he/she pays dues and assessments for the semester/year, if applicable, and attends all of the chapter meetings during a semester. The Executive Committee may waive, replace, or otherwise modify the attendance requirement in instances where the regular meeting time conflicts with a student's required presence elsewhere.
- B. Students who are on academic or non-academic probation or suspension will be placed in an inactive status and will be ineligible to participate in Chapter activities. Students on probation or suspension may apply for readmission at the end of their probation or if they are reinstated at the College/University.
- C. Students who are not current in chapter dues and assessments will be placed in an inactive status, until such time that any amount due the Chapter is paid.

- D. A faculty member shall be considered to be active in Nu Rho Psi if he/she pays dues and attends at least one meeting or activity during the semester.
- E. The chapter secretary shall provide a list of active and inactive members to the members and Chapter advisor each semester.

Section 5. Provisional Membership

- A. Provisional members will be considered active members of a local chapter, and eligible to attend all chapter activities
- B. Provisional members are not eligible for chapter officer positions
- C. Provisional members are not eligible to apply for national Nu Rho Psi awards and grants

ARTICLE IV--OFFICERS

Section 1. Eligibility requirements for Officers

- A. Officers must be regular members of Nu Rho Psi and registered as full-time students, in good academic standing both at the time of the election and while serving as an officer.
- B. At the time of election and during the time served the officers must have attained and maintained the scholarship required for selection to membership.
- C. Officers must perform the duties of the office at a satisfactory level.

Section 2. Officers and Collective Responsibility

- A. The principal officers of this chapter shall be President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Additional officers, such as service chair, historian, etc. (see below), may be elected at the discretion of the members.
- B. The officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these bylaws, the bylaws of the National Society, and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the Chapter, and shall fulfill such other duties and requirements as may be determined by the National Society.
